TO BE PUBLISHED

JEFFERSON

Questions Presented: Criminal attempt to commit Murder, Possession of a handgun by a convicted felon, and Tampering with physical evidence-20 years. Trial court properly denied the motion to suppress defendant’s statement to the police. Trial court did not err in refusing to allow certain cross-examination of the victim in order to show bias. Police officer’s comments characterizing defendant’s statements as “trying to hide something from me” did not merit a mistrial. Jury instructions on the possession of a handgun by a convicted felon charge did not deprive defendant of his right to a unanimous verdict.
